How can we improve dysphagia management and treatment?

Join our discussion on the current management of dysphagia

Followed by an overview of Pharyngeal Electronic Stimulation (PES) as a treatment for dysphagia and an update on current trials.

Thursday 5th December at 12.10 – 13.10 in the Main Auditorium at UKSF 2013

www.phagenesis.com

Visit us at stand H74
Agenda

Chair: Dr. David G Smithard  BSc MB MD FRCP RICR
Director Kent and Medway CLRN, Clinical Medical Director Kent Community Health, Stroke Physician

Current practice in dysphagia management by Carolee Mclaughlin
Clinical Lead SLT, Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast

Limitations of dysphagia therapies by Dr. Jessica Beavan
Stroke Consultant, Royal Derby Hospital

An overview of Pharyngeal Electronic Stimulation (PES) by Prof. Shaheen Hamdy
Professor of Neurogastroenterology, University of Manchester

Update on STEPS (Swallowing Treatment using Electrical Pharyngeal Stimulation) trial by Prof. Philip Bath
Professor of Stroke Medicine, University of Nottingham, Professor of Stroke Medicine, Stroke Association

Visit us at stand H74

www.phagenesis.com